A SEASON OF INNOVATION, IN TASTE AND BEAUTY,
IN ONE OF THE MOST INTIMATE AND SCENOGRAPHIC
CORNERS OF SICILY IS ON ITS WAY

The five-star Le Calette Hotel, immersed in the fascinating Sicilian coast near Cefalù, is ready to start the new season on the 7th of April. From private accommodations to interesting programmes and tailor-made experiences, to a new gourmet proposal in the hands of the chef Dario Pandolfo, there is plenty to be discovered this season.

Le Calette, Cefalù, Friday, April 8 – “Le Calette” is a jewel set in the charming setting of the Cefalù coast, run for the last five decades by the Cacciola - Miccichè family. The new season is about to get underway offering exciting novelties set to exalt guest’s tastes and experiences with the same authentic, carefree charm that has set it apart for over 50 years in a very beautiful setting. It has panoramic open spaces overlooking the sea surrounded by almost two hectares of luxurious botanical gardens, set between a private inlet and the bay of Caldura with a view of the cliff which overhangs Cefalù. “Le Calette” can be confirmed as one of the most exclusive and suggestive offers of hospitality in all of Sicily.

In the words of General Manager, Filippo Marchese, “Le Calette” is becoming a reference point for high class Sicilian hospitality. The History, Beauty and Culture of the island is transmitted to its visitors, who can discover the antiquity of an extraordinary territory, become immersed in the flavours of the land or quite simply enjoy the marvellous natural surroundings.

A NEW LEADER AND GOURMET PROPOSAL

This year’s gastronomical novelty is the arrival of the thirty-year-old chef from Milazzo, Dario Pandolfo, who previously worked at St. Hubertus in San Cassiano and Geranium in Copenhagen. He will helm the fine dining restaurant CALA LUNA which will be situated on the lawn under the stars in the summer and in an elegant and panoramic dining room in the cooler months. The restaurant can seat 40 guests and will offer a menu developed with local purveyors, taking into account modern-yet-authentic dishes which will be revealed during the summer season and beyond. The interesting wine list curated by head sommelier Paolo Bertero centres on two great wine producing areas; Sicily and Alto Adige, exalting the gastronomic vision the “island continent” of Sicily.

A LONG SEASON FOR LOVERS OF THE GOOD LIFE

Le Calette takes another step forward to help northern Sicily become an all-seasons destination for tourism. In 2022, the new Wellness and Spa area with its iconic pool, plus a beneficial all year climate and nature which explodes in the spring, will allow guests to enjoy every moment of their get away from April until late October. Dedicating time to yourself and your friends, reading a book or listening to an intriguing podcast while admiring the “Rocca di Cefalù” (the cliff overhanging Cefalù) or the Tyrrhenian Sea with, on a clear day, the Aeolian islands in the background.

DISCOVER SICILY WITH “LE CALETTE”

The experiences created by “Le Calette” fully express a sense of hospitality and a desire to place the guests in contact - in an authentic and original way - with Cefalù, as well as its nearby surroundings. One of the most significant innovations of this year is “Saluto al Sole”, a program dedicated to saluting the sun with a private yoga class. Otherwise, head for a picnic on the “Rocca di Cefalù” – a UNESCO site – or take a guided tour (with local Art and History experts) to the twin Norman towns of Monreale and Palermo. Those seeking adventure can follow the tracks of the famous Targa Florio in vintage cars or go out to sea with local fishermen to fish in the season when it is allowed. For a true dive into Sicilian Culture, you can try your hand at the art of cake making with a course held by the Hotel’s pastry chef or explore a sensory course in appreciation of the great Sicilian wines with dedicated and thematic wine tasting.

ABOUT LE CALETTE

For more than fifty years, Le Calette has been recognized as one of the most exclusive resorts in Sicily. Immersed in one of the most suggestive and spectacular corners of the north coast of the island, just outside Cefalù, (UNESCO site), and surrounded by 2 hectares of park, the Mediterranean architecture of the structure follows the natural curves and inlets of the bay of Caldura into the little “cale” (bays) from which it takes its name.

The structure boasts suites and rooms divided into two complexes, the five star “Le Calette N°5” and the four star “Le Calette Garden and Bay” and some private villas. Le Calette offers panoramic terraces and quiet Mediterranean gardens overlooking the sea where you can chill out and relax, plus a wide choice of restaurants, bars, beach clubs and wellness areas to ensure an extraordinary and unique stay.
